

TensiNewsflash

February 2023

Dear member,

TENSINANTES2023 : TensiNet Symposium 2023 at Nantes Université

Membrane architecture: the seventh established building material. Designing reliable and sustainable structures for the urban environment.

TENSINANTES 2023 – 7th till 9th June at Nantes Université, France

The symposium TENSINANTES 2023 "Membrane architecture: the seventh established building material. Designing reliable and sustainable structures for the urban environment" is in full preparation. Registration has been open for a few days now and as TensiNet member you receive a discount as mentioned in the table:

TensiNet Symposium Registration fee	Individual member	University member	Firm member	Partner member
	-20%	-20% for up to 2 participants	-20% for up to 2 participants	Free for up to 2 participants

We would appreciate it if you could register in advance, it only takes 2min to do so. To bring colleagues or friends to Nantes, you can also take advantage of the early bird discount until 01.03.2023. See link

Confirmed Keynote speakers include Bruce Danziger- Danziger Engineering Collaborative, Inc. | Carol Monticelli - Polytechnic of Milan | Karsten Moritz – IMS Bauhaus® Archineer® Institutes e.V. | Louis Ratajczak – DVVD | Ramon Sastre - Universitat Politècnica Catalunya | Jean-Christophe Thomas – Université Nantes | Grégoire Zündel - Atelier Zündel Cristea

For info on visiting Nantes see the Official website of the tourist office of Nantes including information on how to get there; places to eat and stay; museums to visit and information on the recommend "Walk the green line" which is a permanent collection of more than 120 artworks in public spaces, running from the heart of the city out to the Ocean, along the Estuaire itinerary and the region's vineyards. For specific info on contemporary architecture, reconversion projects and urban regeneration see the website of archdaily. The city of Nantes has a rich history reflected in the urban fabric of a city traversed by the Loire River, which brought the city economic prosperity over the centuries. For organising the conference dinner on Thursday evening, the amazing venue of the "Galerie des Machines" at Les Machines de l'île was chosen. You will find Jules Verne's "Invented Worlds", Leonardo da Vinci's mechanical universe and Nantes' industrial history, on this exceptional site of the city's former shipyards.

We invite you to join TENSINANTES 2023 and to explore the surprising city of Nantes!

Kind regards,

Evi Corne & Marijke Mollaert